DR. DISORGANIZER'S STORY

Kenny has always had a hard time staying organized and he has never been able to hold a steady job. When he was a baby he was accidentally dropped on his head, and to this day his eyes go cross-eyed at times because of it. Kenny thinks that his inability to keep his life in order can be traced back to this fall. Luckily, he has many friends simply because most people know what it feels like to be disorganized.

Kenny was a school janitor in Denver for a while. He was a terrible janitor because he couldn't keep anything clean. The principal gave him the job only because Kenny had a family to support and the principal felt sorry for him. When Kenny discovered that he was given the job out of pity, he quit and has since then joined THE UNTEACHABLES. Kenny has disliked doctors every since he fell on his head, so THE UNDERACHIEVER gave him the name DR. DISORGANIZER to remind Kenny to make students everywhere horribly disorganized. DR. DISORGANIZER was kind enough to put in his two weeks notice at the school. However, he used those two weeks to build tools using supplies from the school shed. He built a two-speed, two-mode "Disaster Blaster" from an old leaf blower. The speeds are high and low and the modes are forward and reverse. In the forward mode, he is able to enter a room and completely destroy it with high winds. In the reverse mode, he can make things disappear by sucking them into his machine. This is a perfect tool to cause disaster and disorganization.

He also built a "Hyper Splasher," a jack-in-the-box he plays for students to surprise them and get their attention. He claims that organized people, who always know where things are located, are never surprised. Once DR. DISORGANIZER has a student's attention, he uses his Hyper Splasher and sprays the student with a mix of colored sugar and coffee that he found in the school shed. He calls it hyper splash because once it gets on student's skin it sends them on a rampage of disorganization.

DR. DISORGANIZER'S arsenal also consists of "Chaos Collectors". They come in many different colors and sizes and gradually collect schoolwork, junk and moldy food. You have probably seen many of these bags in your own school - Chaos Collectors are very popular! Some people wear them on their back while others just carry them over their shoulder.

DR. DISORGANIZER'S soul purpose is to make students so disorganized that their grades drop. Keep yourself organized and do not allow him to take control of your life. It takes total commitment to defeat him because he makes you think that being disorganized is the easiest way to survive school life. Remember, smart people are cool!
